

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Introduction: The Global Financial Crisis and the Constitution Xenophon Contiades	1
PART I CONSTITUTIONAL REACTIONS IN COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE
1 How Constitutions Reacted to the Financial Crisis Xenophon Contiades and Alkmene Fotiadou	9
PART II FIRST PATH: ADJUSTMENT
2 The Constitution and the Financial Crisis in Ireland David Gwynn Morgan	63
3 The Constitutional Consequences of the Financial Crisis in Italy Tania Groppi, Irene Spigno and Nicola Vizioli	89
4 Financial Crisis and the Constitution in Latvia Ringolds Balodis and Janis Pleps	115
5 The Spanish Constitution in the Turmoil of the Global Financial Crisis Agustín Ruiz Robledo	141
6 The Constitution and the Financial Crisis in the UK: Historical and Contemporary Lessons John F. McEldowney	167
PART III SECOND PATH: SUBMISSION
7 The Impact of the Financial Crisis on the Greek Constitution Xenophon Contiades and Ioannis A. Tassopoulos	195

- 8 The Sovereign Debt Crisis and the Constitution's Negative Outlook:
A Portuguese Preliminary Assessment 219
Jónatas E.M. Machado

PART IV THIRD PATH: BREAKDOWN

- 9 Breaking and Making Constitutional Rules: The Constitutional
Effects of the Financial Crisis in Hungary 245
Zoltán Szente
- 10 The Impact of the Financial Crisis on Icelandic Constitutional Law:
Legislative Reforms, Judicial Review and Revision of the Constitution 263
Björg Thorarensen

PART V FOURTH PATH: STAMINA

- 11 The United States Constitution and the Great Recession 287
Mark Tushnet
- Index* 301